

Underwear for the Child

The Miss, The Woman!

What do you look for in Underwear? First its quality then construction then value and the garment must conform with your figure to be comfortable and satisfactory. These are the points we insist on in selecting our Underwear—our demands of the manufacturer being far greater (he says exacting) than yours are. In our assortment of Knit Underwear for Women, Misses and Children, we exemplify the superiority of this store as to high quality and low prices. From the all wool to the low priced cotton garment—the value we offer is not bettered anywhere or duplicated to our knowledge.

For the Child and the Miss—25c fleeced, grey wool and white all wool vests and pants. Dr. Denton's sleeping garments in two styles, also a cheaper garment at 29c.

For the Women—25c medium and fleeced vests and pants. 50c medium vests with three quarter length sleeves and pants with the equestrian tops that fit so nicely over the hips. 50c heavy fleeced vests and pants and all grades of wool in vests and pants and Union Suits.

By all means, don't forget Pony Hose for the Children and Wayne Knit Hosiery for the Women.

The Presbyterian church fair closed Saturday evening with a large attendance, about 300 people being present. The entertainment, "The Dairymaid's Recreation," given by the young people of the Heddling M. E. church, was very enjoyable and received enthusiastic applause from the audience. The fair throughout the three nights was especially well attended and was a very good success financially.

There was probably no more enjoyable Halloween party Saturday night, than that held at 236 Washington street, when the carriers from the local post office met at the home of D. S. Waterman, and were royally entertained. Covers were laid for eight, the entire force being present, and to say they did justice to the entire ten courses would be superfluous, as there seemed to be nothing lacking to make the inner man glad. The decorations were in keeping with the day, and it was not until reminded that a new day was close at hand that the company was broken up.

Election returns will be received at the rooms of the granite manufacturers' association in the C. W. Averill building and Barre people are invited to attend. The Republican and the Democratic city committees join in extending this courtesy to the public.

It is estimated that the anthracite coal tonnage of the various companies this year as compared with last year to the end of September shows a shortage of 3,000,000 tons. This means without doubt, there will be a serious shortage of domestic coal the coming winter months. Better anticipate your wants and send your orders to Calder & Richardson, Depot square. They are handling the best grades of coal at the right prices. Also nice dry wood.

Frank Tague, who gave Officer Carle a lively tussle to land him in jail Saturday afternoon, was arraigned in the city court this morning and pleaded guilty to a subsequent offense, it being his fourth offense for intoxication in this court. Judge Scott gave him a straight sentence to the county jail for thirty days. William Smith of Hardwick pleaded guilty to a first offense of intoxication and paid a total of $14. He was arrested Saturday evening by Officer Gamble.

The man from Missouri is always welcome in our store. We claim much for RALSTON SHOES, but nothing which we cannot substantiate and it pleases us to hear a man say "show me."

We've been in the shoe business for a long time, but Ralston Shoes are the only shoes we know which are stylish enough to please the eyes of the most fastidious dresser without making his feet pay the penalty. There's a reason. Will you say "show me?"
